

Paid for by the Committee to Elect Stacy Head

StacyHead.com

Early Vote: April 7, 2012 - April 14, 2012
Election Day: Saturday, April 21, 2012

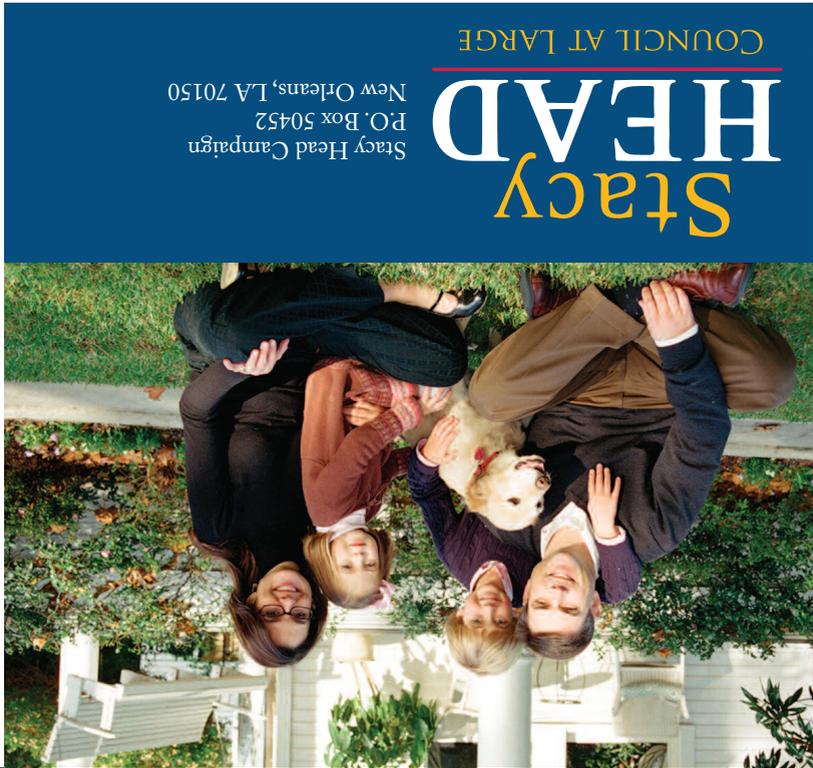

The Times-Picayune

Endorsed by

- Eliminating Blight - Stacy has consistently pushed for bolder efforts in attacking our city's drastic blight issues.
- Fighting Crime And Reforming NOPD - To fight violent crime, Stacy knows we need to focus on tough NOPD reform in partnership with the Department of Justice, while simultaneously tackling long-term issues like economic development and an expanded and improved NORD programming.
- Neighborhood Revival - Stacy is a long-time champion for neighborhood groups and her work has paid off. By partnering with strong communities, flood-devastated neighborhoods are beginning to boom with entrepreneurship, good jobs and new economic development.

Stacy's Work Means Results:

As your next Councilmember-At-Large, Stacy Head will continue working on our city's toughest problems, including crime, blight and expanding job opportunities. She'll put her experience and tenacity to work for all of New Orleans. Let's elect Stacy Head, so Stacy can work for all of us.

Stacy HEAD

COUNCIL AT LARGE

Stacy Head Campaign
P.O. Box 50452
New Orleans, LA 70150

Stacy Head Works For Us.

Stacy HEAD

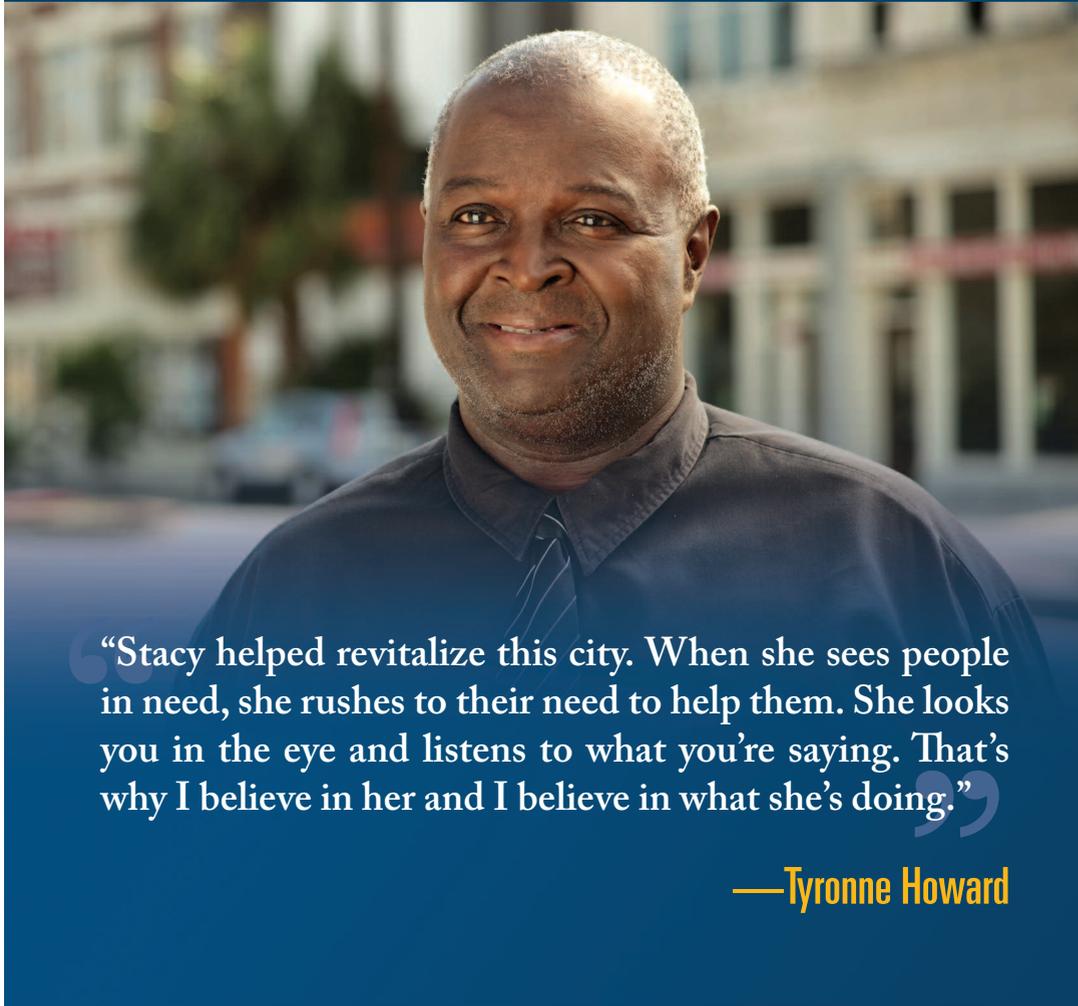

COUNCIL AT LARGE

Early Vote: April 7, 2012 - April 14, 2012

Election Day: Saturday, April 21, 2012

Stacy Head Works For Us & She'll Work For You Too.

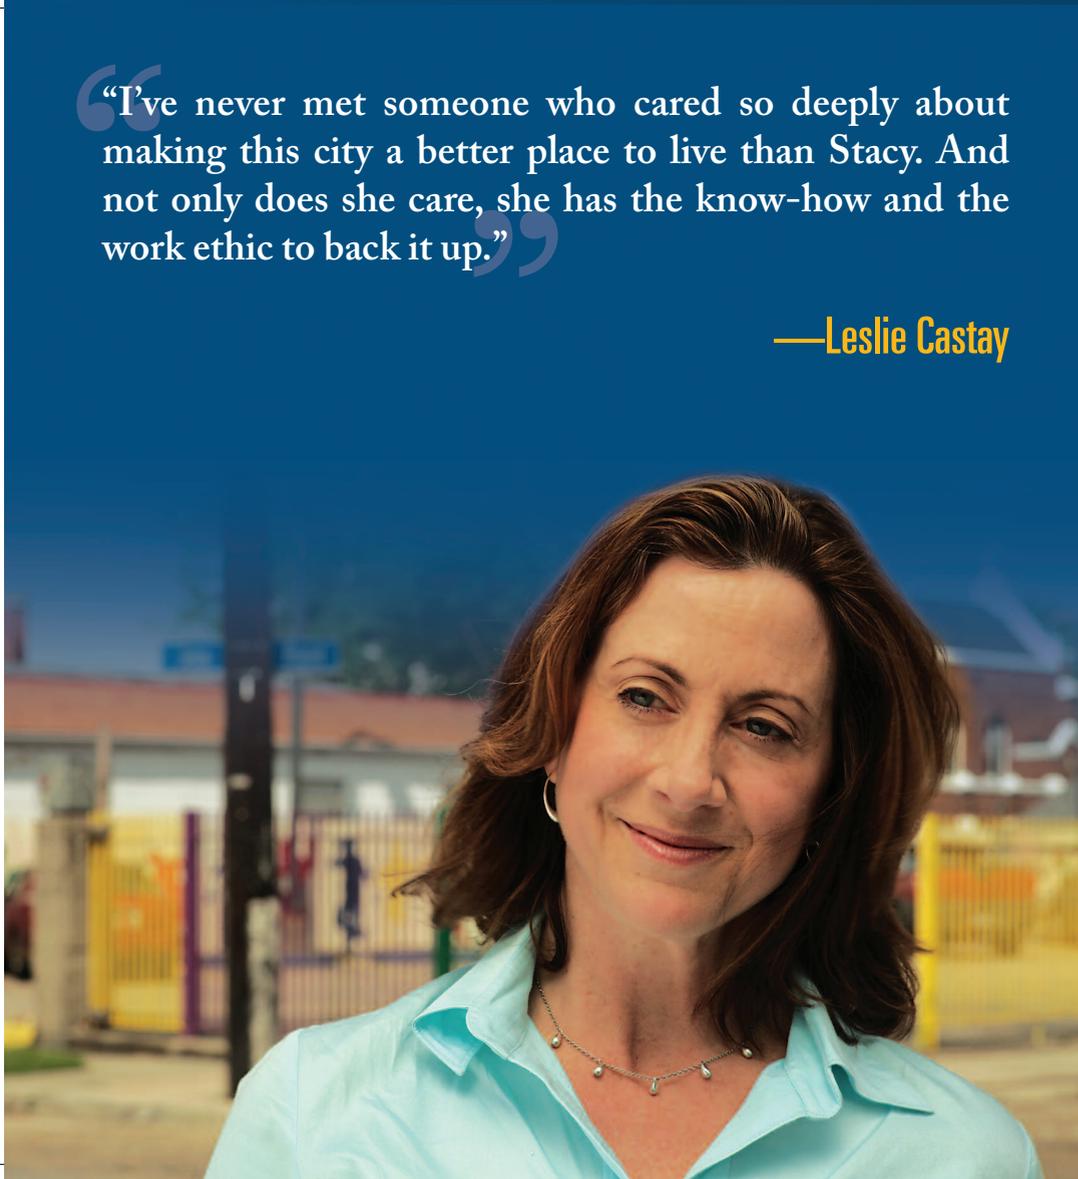

“Stacy helped revitalize this city. When she sees people in need, she rushes to their need to help them. She looks you in the eye and listens to what you’re saying. That’s why I believe in her and I believe in what she’s doing.”

—Tyronne Howard

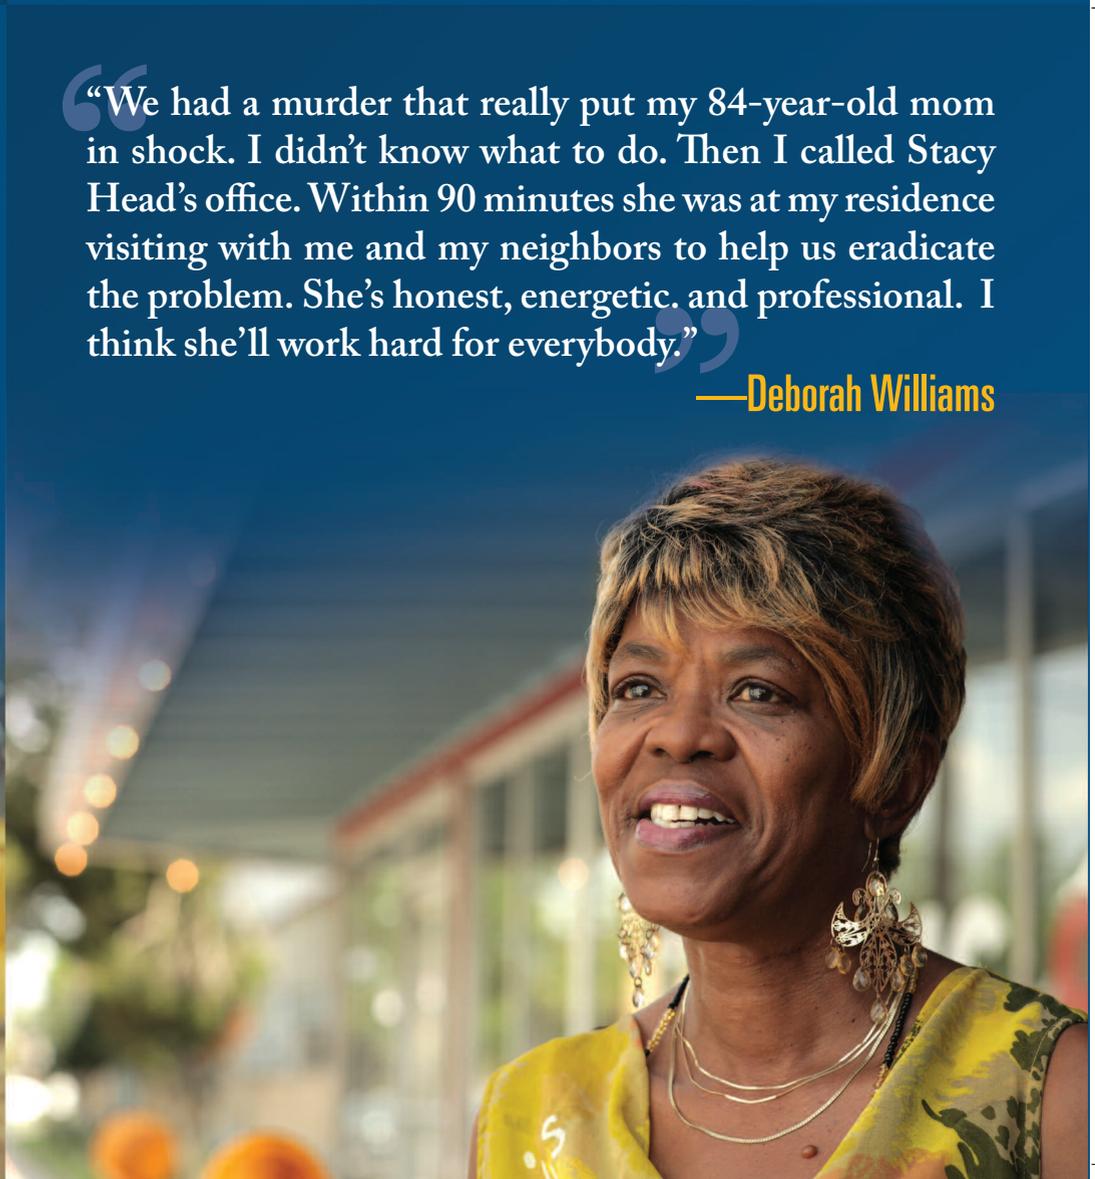

“As small business-owners, we’re proud to support Stacy. She’s been extremely active in the revitalization of Freret Street, O.C. Haley and all of the neighborhoods in her district. Stacy’s been a blight fighter from day one. Stacy works hard for everybody in this community.”

—Andy Brott and Kellie Grengs

“I’ve never met someone who cared so deeply about making this city a better place to live than Stacy. And not only does she care, she has the know-how and the work ethic to back it up.”

—Leslie Castay

“We had a murder that really put my 84-year-old mom in shock. I didn’t know what to do. Then I called Stacy Head’s office. Within 90 minutes she was at my residence visiting with me and my neighbors to help us eradicate the problem. She’s honest, energetic, and professional. I think she’ll work hard for everybody.”

—Deborah Williams