LEADING THE CHARGE FOR CHANGE

The Times-Picayune

“Mr. Brossett...has a reputation as an effective and responsive lawmaker. Mr. Brossett understands the needs of District D and how to run a council office.”

As a state lawmaker... [Brossett] held bureaucrats accountable for making sure recovery dollars reached the areas that needed them most.

JARED BROSSETT IS LEADING THE WAY FOR NEW ORLEANS

STANDING UP FOR NEW ORLEANS

Led the fight to save the city's only historically black university, Southern University of New Orleans.

Fought Bobby Jindal's attempt to privatize our public hospitals, protecting much-needed health care for our communities.

HOLDING GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABLE

Chairman of the Hurricane Recovery Committee and led the charge against corruption and fraud in the Road Home Program.

Created permanent Homestead Exemptions for property owners, and authored legislation to allow property owners more time to file property assessment challenges.

BECAUSE EXPERIENCE MATTERS

As a member of the State House and Government Affairs Committee during the redistricting process, Brossett led the fight to defeat Bobby Jindal's attempt to weaken our voting rights.

Worked as senior staff on City Council during Hurricane Katrina and understands the challenges of being a leader during tough times.
